Follow in the footsteps of Indiana native Ernie Pyle, one of America’s most famous World War II correspondents. From London to Paris: In the Footsteps of Ernie Pyle is a four-credit, semester-long course during spring semester on the life and times of Pyle. The class includes spring break travel to London, England, and Normandy and Paris, France.

Taught by lecturer Bonnie Layton, the class studies the gifted way Pyle describes faraway scenes and people to audiences in the pre-internet and CNN era. The week in Europe will include travel to London, Normandy and Paris. Students will visit the Imperial War Museum, St. Paul’s Cathedral, the Cabinet War Rooms, historic Omaha and Utah beaches, the American cemetery, Mont-Saint-Michel and more.

Tentative course schedule and trip details

11:15 a.m.-12:30 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. FF 214. This is subject to change.

Eligibility

To apply for the course, you must:

- be on track to be a sophomore by credit hours (30 hours completed) by the end of fall 2018 semester, or a master’s student
- have a 3.0 cumulative GPA
- be on track to be admitted to The Media School by the end of the fall 2018 semester

Costs

The Media School provides a scholarship to all students admitted to this course to lower the course fee that’s assessed for travel.

Full program costs: $3,500
Course fee after scholarship: $2,675

The course fee covers round-trip transportation from Bloomington, lodging, all required activities, health insurance and some meals. We recommend students also have $200-$400 available during the trip to cover meals and personal expenses.

These expenses can be reduced through other scholarships and grants, such as the Hutton International Experiences grant.

Upon acceptance into the field experience course, your bursar account will be billed a $500 non-refundable deposit.

The remainder of the basic program costs will be billed to your bursar account in November, due in December with spring tuition.
